A Message from the Director

ff

"Growing up in this business from apprentice plasterer, I've been lucky to learn the trade and the industry from the ground up. It's a privilege to lead Hill Interior Linings, build our talented team and work with clients who trust us to deliver their vision. Over the years, we've grown from doing retail fitouts to being specialists in hospitality, education, and commercial projects. Since 1996, our focus has always stayed the same—quality work, honest relationships, and looking after our people. I'm proud of the team we've built, the work we do, and the reputation we've earned. At Hill Interior Linings, every project matters, and we deliver them as if they were our own."

Aleks Mathewson - General Manager Ashley Cooper Construction

While working with Hill Interior Linings over the past 25 years, there has always been a number of items that separate them from their competitors.

- 1. Quality Over the 25 years quality has never waivered. I have always had a superior quality delivered regardless of the team. Their high quality has also resulted in repeat work for Aligned management from our valued clients.
- 2. Communication The level of communication has always been clear, and easily translated throughout the team.
- 3. Commitment Programs have always been met. All deliverables have been met on time, with the only exception being items that they have no control over, such as nominated specialised ceilings and doors, of which they have been victim of suppliers not delivering on time. In saying that, once delivered the Hill Interiors team move heaven and earth so as to ensure that all works are completed as quickly as possible to a high quality.

Quality is paramount, and is never compromised.

As I have been fortunate enough to work with Hill Interior Linings for over 25 years, I have also been fortunate enough to see the transition from the company being owned and run by Rick Hill, to the handing over of the business to Khalif Hill, of which has been a seamless transition. I have personally witnessed the same qualities and morals in business being handed down from Rick to Khalif, of which over this time I have seen not only a seamless transition in ownership of the business, but also another level of commitment and dedication to quality that has always been instilled into the Hill Interior team.

I will not only continue to engage Hill Interior Linings, but I will also recommend Hill Interior Linings. I wish Hill Interior Linings the best for the future ahead and can only speak positive of all my dealings with the entire team.
